DESTINATION

Set on a clifftop with panoramic views of Little Bay, ANI Anguilla is ideally placed for exploring this jewel of a Caribbean island and its tropical waters.

Situated in the eastern Caribbean Sea, Anguilla is the northernmost of the Leeward Islands in the Lesser Antilles, lying east of Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, and directly north of Sint Maarten. Named after the French word for 'eel' due to its slender shape, the island is 16 miles (26 km) long and a maximum of 3.5 miles (6 km) wide, with beautiful white-sand beaches fringing its shores.

A watersports paradise, Anguilla's warm, turquoise seas offer excellent scuba diving and deep-sea fishing year-round, while private yacht cruises explore the host of uninhabited cays and islets that beckon offshore. ANI guests can discover The Valley's colonial architecture, play the Greg Norman-designed Aurora Anguilla golf course, learn to kite surf or play the steel drums, and still barely have scratched the surface of what's on offer in this remarkable destination.

Accommodating up to 20 guests in 10 light-filled suites, the resort has a dedicated team of up to 20 staff members who tailor every detail of a group's stay.

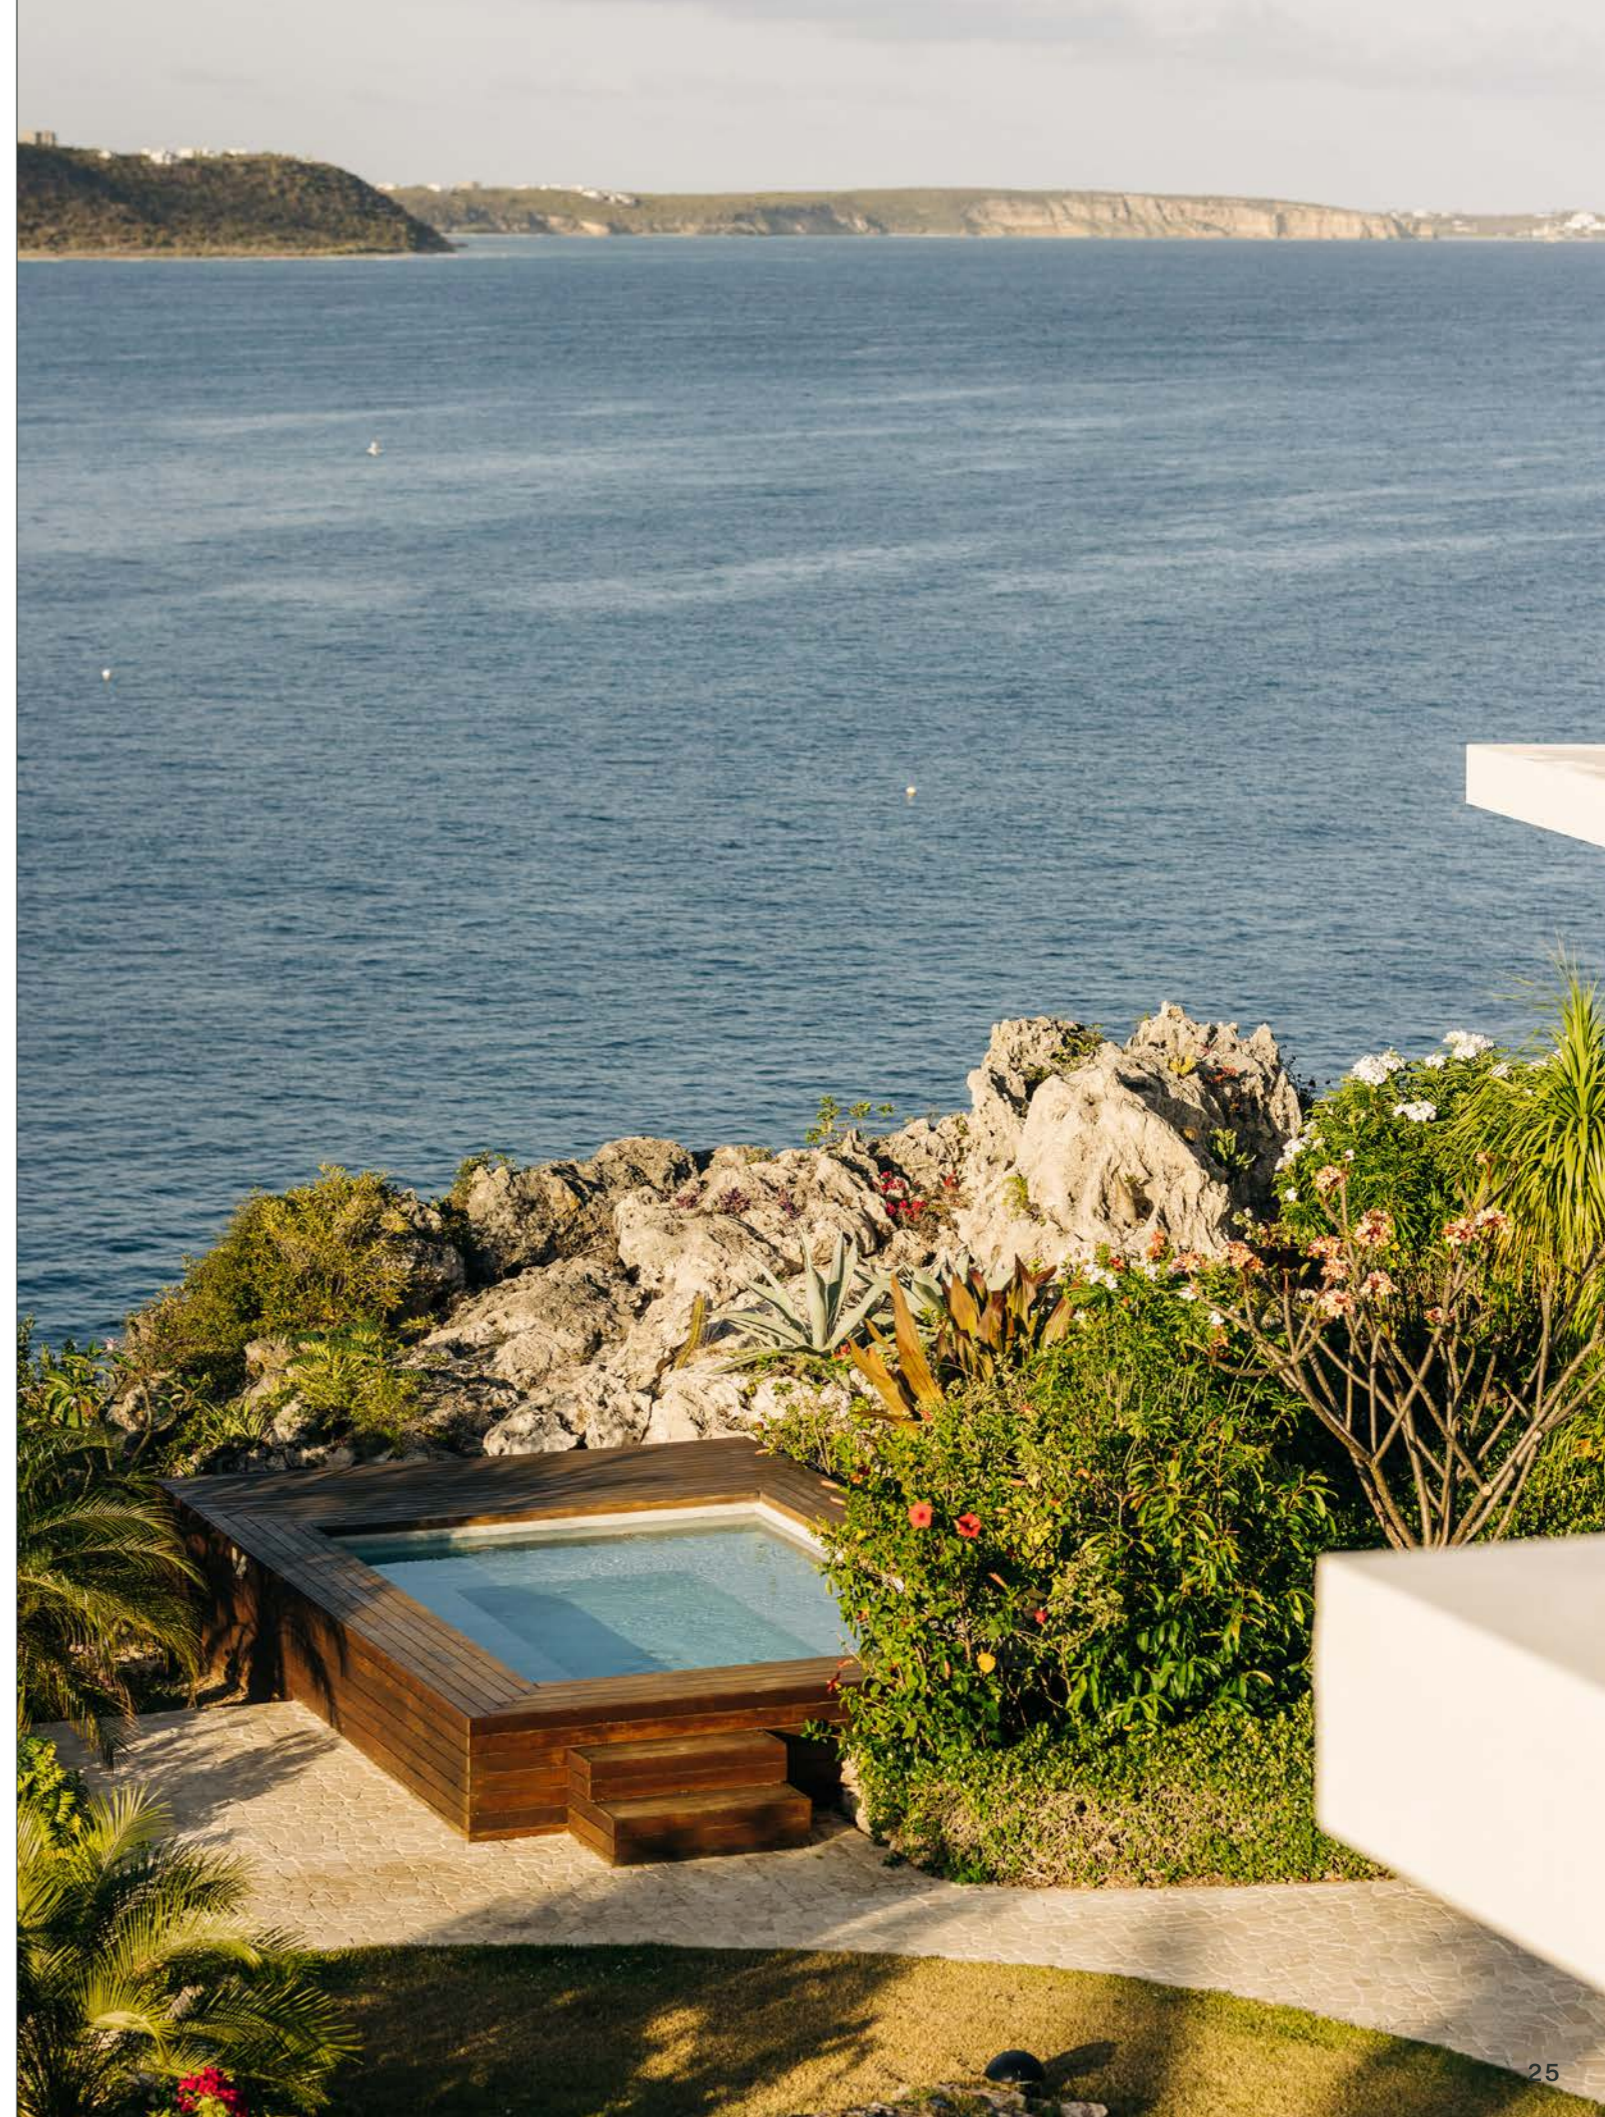

The villas are almost perfect mirror images of each other in their striking contemporary design, boasting tiered terraces and roof decks over three stories to maximize the breathtaking sea views.

Twin hot tubs are surrounded by indigenous vegetation; the air-conditioned gym includes a Peloton bike; a small spa treatment room is situated beside the tennis court; and two golf carts are available for getting to and from Crocus Bay Beach.

Founded to uplift local communities, the non-profit ÀNI Art Academies organization offers a free, multi-year, art skills education to aspiring artists in six schools worldwide. Guests of ÀNI Anguilla are welcome to visit the academy close to the resort.

With all proceeds from art sales going directly to the artists themselves, the six ANI Art Academies are fully supported by ANI founder, Tim Reynolds, and the four ANI Private Resorts. It was Tim's own art training that led to his fortuitous meeting with artist Anthony J. Waichulis, whose highly successful curriculum promotes creative freedom through logic and discipline.

Many ANI Art Academies graduates have gone on to lead highly successful careers as sought-after artists and art educators, benefiting their families and communities alike.
